A Message From Firm Founder Mark Bryant

Every day I think of how fortunate I am and how grateful I am to have grown up as a fourth-generation citizen of Paducah, Kentucky. I raised my fifth-generation children here, and while practicing cases from one edge of the continent to the other, I'm often asked out of curiosity, "Why do you still live in Paducah?" My response is always the same: "Because I can!"

I am proud to be a Paducahan and to be a Kentuckian. My family and I are so blessed to have our health, happiness, and a law firm that is second to none, and I'm not kidding! We have been up against the brightest and best from across the nation: the Harvard and Yale grads who are smarter than most but who still have taken a fall from the Bryant Law Center of Kentucky lawyers.

And last but not least, I am so thankful for the legions of clients who have come to us these past thirty-one years. We are sorry that you needed a lawyer but so happy you chose us to help you through such hard times. That is the absolute best part of being a lawyer. So many people don't like lawyers in general, but they almost always like their own. That's another reason our law firm, along with myself, has been chosen year-end and year out as the Best Lawyer and the Best Law Firm in the region.

We have huge numbers of satisfied clients, and not just for big cases. We have happy clients who've been bitten by a dog, bitten by a horse, or fallen and broken an ankle. You name it! We also have those with horrendous injuries who will never heal but whose lives are made better because the money we obtained for them, either in trial or through settlement, will make their unfortunate situation a little easier.

*Mark & Sue Bryant's wedding,

For all of our clients, I am incredibly thankful! You allow us to do what we love to do every day. Thank you so much! It is so often you also send us family and friends that need help, and we thank you for that too! Thinking back on how quickly our time on God's green earth is passing, I often think of what my brother-in-law, "Uncle Richie," often said: "I'd rather be lucky than good!" Well, when I look around, I honestly feel like I'm the luckiest guy in the world.

My wife, Sue, a Reidland girl, married me 38 years ago this month. She was and remains the very best and most loving person I have ever met. I don't want to gush about her publicly; still, I am just nuts about her and how she put up with me, all the while raising our three children who have turned out exceedingly well: two lawyers, one of whom is a Judge in Louisville, and a third who works for Disney in Orlando. Those three have given us so much joy, and now they have given us five grandchildren who are as good as grandchildren can get. Those of us who are rapidly aging know how awesome that is!

Looking back over this past year, I often think of Albert Jones, my dear relative who mentored me through 70 plus years of life. He passed on February 13, 2021, a huge presence in Paducah and my family. Albert was such a huge influence in my life, causing me to become a lawyer, which begets Karen, my lawyer-niece, Jennifer, my lawyer-Judge-daughter and David, my lawyer-son. Thank you for all your positive influence Albert. I still miss you every day. I am thankful for you.

And last, but not least, I want to thank every one of my people at the Bryant Law Center. When this law firm started 31 years ago, little did I know that it would turn into the operation it is today. Few people have ever quit the Bryant Law Center, and one of the reasons is the positive attitude that everyone brings to work every single day.

There is not a single person here that I do not cherish the day you came to work with me, and I thank you so much for all the great work you do.

In all my years of practicing law, I have never had a better bunch of lawyers or staff than I do right now!

I appreciate all of your hard work, effort, team spirit, expertise, and just being nice people. I love coming to work every day because I greatly enjoy being in your presence. Your commitment to the Bryant Law Center humbles and amazes me. And at this time of Thanksgiving, I thank you for that too! And one last Thanksgiving wish for everyone reading this: I wish you and your family a wonderful Thanksgiving Day! May your heart be filled with gladness and your home be filled with joy!

Sincerely,

Mark P. Bryant

How to Host a More Sustainable Thanksgiving

This season, celebrate Thanksgiving by showing gratitude to the planet and making your holiday gathering more environmentally friendly.

Hit the farmer's market for your Thanksgiving dinner ingredients.

Your food doesn't need to be transported from truck to truck across countless miles and with maximum emissions. This time of year, farmer's markets are rife with interesting touches of home-made holiday goodness.

Use outdoor foliage to decorate

Dried leaves, branches, and flowers that you picked yourself not only look more authentic in wreaths and on your table, but you can also make foraging a fun family tradition. Not to mention a pre-Thanksgiving walk or hike might be a good idea before a big meal.

Use reusable dishes and napkins

If you're hosting a large gathering, it can be tempting to whip out the paper plates and disposable napkins, but consider weighing how much waste on a large family dinner produces against a bit of extra cleaning effort. You can make it fun by turning clean-up into a holiday game where everyone pitches in.

Don't throw away any leftovers

Are you tired of eating those Thanksgiving dinner leftovers? You can take them to a local shelter in need.

What I'm Thankful For

The BLC family tells us what they are thankful for this Thanksgiving.

"I am thankful to God for everything he has blessed me with. For my family, my job, a roof over my head, food on the table and good health. I am extremely fortunate to have all of those. Both of my parents and my husband's parents are deceased so my husband and family is what I am most thankful for and means the most to me."

Becky LaVerdi

"I'm thankful to have a great job and a supportive family."

Jared Holt

"I continue to be thankful and eternally grateful for my family including my two children who are my heart and soul."

Mandi Jannsen

"I am thankful for my family, my job at the Bryant Law Center, my health, getting to have Christina beside me all day, all the things God have blessed me with especially this year."

Amanda Rice

"I am thankful for my wife, my children and grandchildren, my good health, a thriving business that helps a lot of people, my staff, lawyers, and friends, and the Good Lord who makes all this possible!"

Mark Bryant

"This year I am thankful to be expecting my first child and to have such an incredible and supportive husband through the rough days of pregnancy!"

Teris Swanson

"I am thankful for my family, friends who I can laugh with, my job and my faith."

Christina Ellegood

"I could give you a list of 20 things I am thankful – but one of the things I thank God for often is my job at Bryant Law Center. I love working with Kevin – in all my years he is the easiest person I have ever worked with. I also love helping

Legal Updates

1. We are accepting clients who have been exposed to Paraquat and are now suffering from Parkinson's disease and other bad health issues. Scientists knew back in the 1970's that the chemical was bad, and many countries around the world have banned it. Paraquat is a commercial strength herbicide and is sold under various brand names including Paraquat, Paradox, Gramaxone, Parazone among others.
2. We are still reviewing cases and accepting clients in our ongoing investigation into panoramic sunroof leaks and resulting interior and electrical damage in certain Volkswagen Golf Sportswagens, Alltracks, Jettas, Tiguan and Atlas SUVs. Litigation has been filed in multiple states.

our clients who are going through a difficult time after being injured in an accident because they have no idea how to go about getting all of the things done that have to be done. I know this may sound hackneyed, but I truly mean it."

Judy Storm

"I am thankful for my family and our health."

Kevin Shannon

"I'm thankful for my family, my health and my new job at Bryant. I'm also thankful everyday when I go to bed that the roof is on the house, the water is hot, the fridge works and the dog is happy!"

Jeanene Edwards

"I am so thankful for the peace that comes from knowing God is in control over all things, that He is good, and that His mercies are new every morning. He has blessed me in so many ways beyond what I deserve."

Shauna Dollins

"I am grateful and blessed for the gift of salvation. My son and the bond we share. My husband who loves me unconditionally. My dad who is my rock. A tight-knit family. Good health. My job where I work with a talented group of professionals who are compassionate about what they do, helping others."

Carol Sexton

"This year has changed so many things, I'm thankful for all those who have continued to trust us at Bryant Law Center and help us continue to thrive during this time. I am also so thankful for my family and our continued health!"

Emily Roark's Grandmother's Apple Pie

Florence Margaret Rahm, Emily Roark's Grandmother

Granny Rahm's Apple Pie

7 to 8 apples (peeled & sliced)
1 cup of sugar
1 Tablespoon of flour
1/8 teaspoon of nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon of cinnamon
Butter
Pie Crust

Mix all the dry ingredients and then mix with peeled apples. Place apples in a pie dish that already has a pie crust placed in it. Dot generously with butter on the top of the apples. Cover with a second crust and seal the two crusts together. Make a few slits in the top crust. Cover the edges of the pie with a pie shield for 25 minutes and bake at 375 degrees. Remove the pie shield and continue to bake at 375 degrees for an additional 25 minutes. Enjoy!

Legal Updates

3. Our cases filed on behalf of clients who developed certain internal cancers after consuming prescription Zantac are proceeding through litigation and we are still accepting new clients.
4. We are still accepting clients in our cases involving retail sales of mislabeled tractor hydraulic fluids sold with a "303" label. The fluid can cause damage to agricultural equipment and sales have been banned in Missouri.
5. We are no longer accepting new 3M defective earplug cases. If we already have your case, we are working diligently towards a settlement.

Mark and Emily Signing Roundup Checks to be Mailed Out!

Congratulations to the many Bryant Law Center clients we have all over the USA who relied on us to take on RoundUp when many naysayers opined that it couldn't be done. We did it, and many people who suffered from its use will now have a better life. Emily Roark, David Bryant, Christina Ellegood, and I worked hard to get this done. I love being a lawyer because we get to help so many people!

Our Clients Say It Best! Recent 5-Star Reviews

"Kevin Shannon and Mandi Janssen are the absolute best! They took care of everything after my car wreck. It gave me no stress and time to heal after my personal injury. They work hard to get you the compensation you need."

Jennifer Monical, 10/9/2021

"Bryant Law Center did an amazing job! I got into a bad car wreck and didn't know how to go about things. As soon as I called to see if they could help me, they got straight to it. He made sure I was satisfied with my settlement. Kevin Shannon was super sweet and kept in contact the whole time. 10/10 recommend."

Alijay Anderson, 10/9/2021

"I would highly recommend working with Kevin after a car accident! Though the car wreck and several months of medical treatment was difficult and inconvenient, I am so glad I chose to work with professionals like Kevin and Mandi to help navigate the insurance and settlement process. I was very happy with the compensation I received, and I could not have received that amount on my own. I'm thankful they were there to help!"

Jaclyn West, 10/7/2021

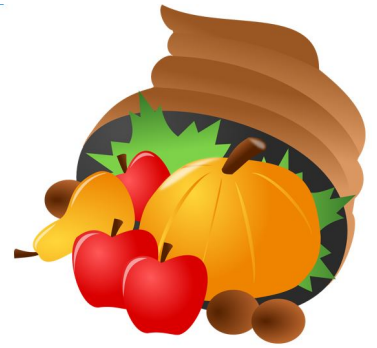

"Kevin was quick, responsive, professional, efficient, and informative. He responded to any questions I had and provided progress on the case regularly! He negotiated the settlement exceptionally well. I highly recommend Kevin Shannon for your injury law needs."
